ELECTRONICS ENTERS A NEW FIELD and reveals, in just a few seconds, exactly how a watch will run over a 24-hour period. By means of the WatchMaster, shown above, the jeweler can tell not only the rate of gain or loss down to a fraction of a second, but also what is wrong if the watch is "tick." The instrument records on a chart, which is attached to a revolving drum, each "tick-tock" of the watch; the slope of the resulting row of dots tells how the watch is keeping time, while unusual or varying slopes tell the jeweler its condition. Top photo shows jeweler pointing to smooth row of dots made by a new watch in perfect condition; inset picture shows how watch is placed in special "microphone" of the WatchMaster, with a smooth row of dots on the chart (near center of machine) revealing excellent condition of watch.

One of these machines has been installed by Allen Jewelers in Torrance.

SPECIAL TRIBUTE WILL BE GIVEN CHILDREN BY LIBRARY DURING NATIONAL BOOK WEEK

"Books for the World of Tomorrow" is the theme for national Children's Book Week from Sunday, Nov. 16 to Saturday, Nov. 22, according to Mrs. Dorothy Jamieson, librarian of Torrance City library. During Book Week and any week Mrs. Jamieson and Miss Frances Bandel are on hand at the library to assist parents in selecting books of a suitable age range and type for their children, and to guide children in their own selections. "We have many lists and reviews which may be consulted by parents and children before they take out library books or buy new ones in the book stores," Miss Jamieson said.

Bookmarks bearing the poem "Sing, O Sing of a New World Waking" in honor of Book Week will be distributed at the library.

Outstanding books recommended for children include "Miss Hickory," story of a country woman whose body was an applewood twig and whose head was a hickory nut, which won the John Newbery Medal this year for Carolyn Sherwin

Georgian folk tales, "The Yes and No Stories," by George and Helen Papashvly, are recommended, partly for their unique beginning phrase: "There was, there was, and yet there was not, there once was a little boy!"

Marjorie Wilkes To Head Torrance Family Service

Miss Marjorie Wilkes, a calm, soft-spoken brunette graduate of U.C.L.A., has moved into her new office at Torrance Welfare Center as director of Family Service for this area. "I want to welcome visitors to my office here," Miss Wilkes said, "since this is the first time since August that a full-time Family Service worker has been located in Torrance. I'll try to do all that I can to help hold families together as units, thru counseling and personal guidance."

Owner of a credential in social work from U.S.G., Miss Wilkes has done case-work for the Los Angeles Children's Home for the last four and a half years. She is a resident of Hermosa Beach. Family Service has had a Torrance office since 1943, and its devoted to the end "that the family unit may be maintained and its members shall become normal and independent members of society."

Its program includes counsel on marital problems, parent-child relationships and unmarried mothers, assistance on preparation of family budgets; aid for physical and mental illness; temporary financial assistance not relieved by government aid; Homemaker Service; and a search on family life.

The Homemaker Service, although not always available, is a program which installs professional home-makers temporarily in homes where the wife and mother is ill or unable to care for her family.

Another service which Miss Wilkes will perform is the advising and routing of persons to the particular social agency which can help them further with their problems.

"I want particularly to give credit to this program to the Torrance advisory committee on the Family Service, of which Rev. Clyde E. Ruckman is chairman," Miss Wilkes said.

Other members of the committee are: Mrs. E. G. Spratt, secretary; Miss LaVeta Crump, Miss Jean Rhodenbaugh, Judge John Shidler, Kenneth C. Beight, George P. Thatcher, Mrs. Julia McMan, Mrs. C. Miller, Mrs. Roy E. Tracey, Mrs. A. O. Fritz, Mrs. Evar J. Jansson, J. H. Hull, and C. E. Woodward.
